RVING HOUSE.—THIS MAGNIFICENT AND WELL known establishment has just been re-opened upon a new pian eatirely for this counsry. The proprietors have been to great expense in refurnishing the house from top to bettom. The upper rooms are large and well ventilated, and as well furnished as lower ones, which is not customary in general. This house has the capacity for vix hundred quests. The d'ming rooms and ladies' ordinary are the largest and best ventilated of any in the give, where meals are served to order at all hours from five in the morning until twelve at night. We have the most experienced cocks—french, English and German—to suit the palates of all nations, and at just such expense as may seem fit to induce in—each person paying only for what he orders, and not being obliged to pay three dollars per egx, without the benefit of a friendly invitation out to dinner or tea. This is the only manner in which the hotel system can be reduced to a perfost equality to the guests—charging each one in proportion to the comforts they enjoy. The location of the Irving is by far the most desirable for ladies (as the parlors and erdinary will testify), being on the corner of the beautiful Park, and directly opposite Stewart's marble palace, where all the fashion and beauty of the country are constantly going and coming, in fair riew of the Irving House, where all the fashion and most thankful for past favors, and are happy to say that our business thus far much exceede our most sanguine expectations. THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMpassion. By Dr. A. M. Mauriceau, Protessor of Discesses of Woman. One hundredth edition (500 000), 18mc, pp. 250. On fine paper, extra binding, $1.

Rivery woman can here discover, by comparing her own symptoms with those described, the nature, cheracter and causes of her complaint, and be spared much anxiety and suffering. The wife about becoming a mether has often need of instruction and advice in respect to her situation, which there exists the familiar system, or from prolayeus uteri (falling of the womb), or from finer ablus, will such find in its pages the means of prevention, amelioration and relief.

Battree of a letter from a gentleman in Dayton. Ohio. Dr. A. M. Mouriceau—

Ry Dear Six—My wife has been perceptibly sinking for some three years or mers, in cessequence of great anguish and suffering rome months before and during conficement; every successive one more and more debilitated and prostructed her, putting her life in imminent danger, and which was on the last occasion despaired of. I supposed that this state of things yas inevitable, and resigned myself to meet the wirst. I heardwont book highly apoken of, as containing some matters reaching my case. On its receipt and perusal I cannot express to you the relief it all reded my distressed mind, and the joy its pages imparted to my wife on learning that the great discovery of H. M. Decembers with the page in parted to my wife on learning that the great discovery of H. M. Decembers Provided a remedy. It opened a precept to me which I listic excessived was possible. But for this, ere another year wife for pages in parted to my wife on learning that the great discovery of M. M. Decembers Provided a remedy. It opened a precept to the me which I listic excessived was possible.
